HORSE-CAR MEN COMPLAIN.

The New Fourth Avenue Time Table Lengthens Their Working Day.

Dissatisfaction is felt by the drivers and conductors on the "depot" cars of the Fourth Avenue horse-car line over the change of time made last Monday.

To an EVENING WORLD reporter, who spoke to half a dozen of them, they said they didn't see the reason for the change, and dislike it very much.

Supt. Skitt said: "The change was made to accommodate the public by removing the need of getting a transfer at Thirty-second street after 12 o'clock. After 3 o'clock all the 'depot cars' now run through to Eighty-sixth street."

This change gives from thirty-five down to eight minutes extra for the men. But they have an extra hour allowed them for dinner. Where they had one they have two now. Patrick Smith, driver of car 56 and Secretary of the labor organization among the men, saw me and when I explained the matter was satisfied. It is no benefit to the road.

Excise Violators Held.

In the Harlem Police Court this morning Justice Welde held the following persons in 400 bail each for violation of the Excise law: Robert Caruthers, 430 Third avenue; Philip Winter, 1190 Second avenue; Benjamin Kahn, 1750 Third avenue; William Schaffer, 121 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street; Cornelius O'Sullivan, Avenue A and One Hundred and Sixteenth street; Gottlieb Muller, 1423 Second avenue; Otto Keen, 1400 Third avenue; and Peter Kahn, 164 Tenth avenue.

In the Yorkville Police Court Justice White held John J. Scanlon, of 130 Third avenue, on the same charge.

Caught in a Moulding Machine.

Michael Short, twenty-nine years old, living at 22 Catherine street, Brooklyn, while at work at 123 Tenth avenue this morning had three fingers of his left hand cut off by a moulding machine. He was taken to the New York Hospital.

Jersey City Jailings.

Alfred Hengel, an oil driller, has been missing for a week. He is 5 feet 4 inches tall, stout and has sandy hair.

Patrick Powers, the man who was struck by a train on the Pennsylvania railroad Saturday night, died this morning at St. Francis Hospital.

John Logan, the seventh and last of the toughs who were killed after Charles Berghoff a week ago, was caught this morning by Detective Holtic.

John Reishaus, of 25 Stevens avenue, was this morning found cold and dead in a workshop adjoining his home. Heart disease caused his death.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of Fred Zimmerman, the driver who threw a brick at little Freddy Schatz Saturday. The boy's condition is dangerous.

John Holski, Adolph Wiloski and Stephen Poloski, three Jews who live at 22 Canal street, were arraigned before Justice Sullivan this morning. They assaulted Michael and Martin Shannon, of the next house, and almost killed both.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearlina, or "the same as Pearlina."

It's false—they are not, and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, but sold by all good grocers.
